DOINGS IN THE COURTS.

The Sensational Kleber-McCloud Case Progresses Rather Slowly.

A Judgment in the Blake Opera House Case—The George Libel Suit.

There was hardly as large an attendance in the circuit court to-day as yesterday. Perhaps it was because yesterday's developments were not what the listeners had fondly anticipated. Although the Kleber-McCloud case may contain considerable wickedness very little has so far been brought out, and the prurient-minded ones were consequently very much disappointed.

Much of the time to-day has been taken up with the reading of depositions. The taking of testimony in the case will probably not be finished before tomorrow noon.

Miss Cornelia George's action against the Recorder Printing Co. came up for a hearing this morning, and on the defendant's affidavit was confirmed for the term.

A judgment has at last been rendered in one of the Blake Opera House cases. The case was that in which the defendant is the Home Insurance Co. Arguments were made by Mr. Dodge for the plaintiff and by William Rager for the defendant. Mr. Blake was awarded the sum of one hundred yards record to nine and four-fifths seconds.

Mrs. B. J. Kennedy, wife of the late Byron J. Kennedy who was killed in the Kastner & Co. mill explosion, is spending a few weeks in the city, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keister, of the fifth ward. Mrs. Kennedy will visit her mother in Chicago during the summer and expects to locate permanently in Janesville later in the season.

The equib in this morning's Recorder relating to an alleged remark of Richard O'Donnell at the Clinton convention, reminds one of a remark the noted democratic barrister of Boloit, Cornelius Buckley, made at the democratic county convention two years ago. In seconding the nomination of McGavock for sheriff he said, "He has done in a pecuniary sense that any other member of the democratic party. When the party called he went down into his pocket."

JUDGE DYER'S LAST SESSION.

Invitations have been received by Janesville young people for a dancing party at Clinton next Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Danwiddie entertained a number of friends last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bur. W. Jones of Madison.

The Woman's Exchange have made arrangements to furnish fresh cream for the season. Leave orders at their rooms on South Main street.

Dr. O. P. Robinson's condition remains practically unchanged, although this morning the patient seemed a trifle more comfortable.

Rock River Encampment No. 3, I. O. O. F., assembled in regular semi-monthly meeting this evening at Odd Fellows' hall North Main street.

Cards are on for the wedding of Mr. Charles Myhr and Miss Emma Stoddard. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday evening of next week.

Olivio Branch Lodge No. 36, Ancient Order of United Workmen, assembled in regular meeting this evening—lodge room in the Smith block, East Milwaukee.

People's Lodge No. 400, Independent Order of Good Templars, assembled in regular weekly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Court Street M. E. church block.

The Woman's Exchange will give a strawberry festival next Monday evening. The tables will be spread at six o'clock and refreshments served through the entire evening.

Mrs. Pratt, of Madison, widow of the late Rev. J. B. Pratt, is spending a few days in the city, and is the guest of her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ball of the fourth ward.

Landlord Johnson is again remodeling the interior of the Park house. This time the office is being enlarged by the removal of the partition that separates it from the ball-way.

A. F. Hall will start for Washington next week. He expects to remain in the east until June and will spend part of his time visiting the southern battle grounds.

The First M. E. church young ladies will give an entertainment and ice cream festival at Cannon's Hall on Wednesday evening, May 9th. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Messrs. Frank and George Wright, who are now employed in Marshal Field's wholesale establishment, Chicago, of the woolen goods, etc. It is hoped that the young men will be called here by the firm to-morrow, as Dr. Anderson has looked with a kindly eye upon the young man.

Facilities for Doing Special Work at Low Rates.

The Gazette Steam Bindery has now a special binding for the "Portrait History of the World's Great Nations," and is prepared to do this work in a first class manner, cheaper than any New York or Chicago binder. Subscribers to this work will do well by calling at the Gazette Bindery before placing their orders for binding. We have a fine line of samples for the use of the people, town, county and state, and a prohibitive amendment of the cost of the binding.

—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Frost died at the home of the parents near Emerald Grove last evening. Funeral services were held in St. Thomas Catholic church in Beloit to-day.

—Funeral services over the remains of Lucy, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Rogers, were held this afternoon. The little one died last evening at the home of the parents on Franklin street.

—Chautauqua Circle meet next Monday evening, May 7. Quotations from Goethe. Questions in the May Chautauqua on German course in English. Miscellaneous questions in the same number.

—Third ward young ladies are now organizing a "W. A. W." club, and think of offering a prize to the youth who first guesses what the three cabalistic letters mean. But will there be prize enough to go round?

—Tom Ingley, an old time Janesville crook, is now serving six months' time at Waupaca for larceny, under the name of Thomas St. Claire. He now has hair from Wood County. This is Tom's third or fourth term at Waupaca.

—The physicians of the city are invited to meet the committee of directors at the city hospital to-morrow evening at half past seven. The directors are about to publish five hundred copies of the rules and regulations and the co-operation of the physicians.

—Ogden H. Fethers has purchased the two lots lying immediately to the east of the residence of Clarence Jackman, and will build upon them a handsome residence. It is a fine location and commands a grand view of the country in every direction.

—A silk umbrella is always an agreeable present. If you want to give or to a friend or desire the pleasure of carrying a good one yourself, you will find such in solid silver, gold and natural sticks at A. F. Hall & Co.'s, the jewelers, and they expect another large lot in a few days.

—The strawberry festival to be given by the Woman's Exchange at their rooms on South Main street next Monday evening, will be the first of the season, and will no doubt be liberally patronized. Strawberries and cream will be served from six to ten o'clock.

—Mrs. A. Smith was brought to the city hospital last night from Fond du Lac. She has been unable to move for three years past and a stretcher was prepared for her in the baggage car of the night train. At the depot in this city the train was met by a covered platform spring wagon.

—Mr. Frank Wright formerly of this city now holds enough championship medals for short distance running to satisfy almost any one. In his race against well-known runners from England, Canada, and New York last October, at Carbone, he lowered the standard by the city the train was met by a covered platform spring wagon.
